Foreword

In the composition of this annual we have endeavored to trace briefly the progress of Central Catholic High School during the years of its existence. From humble beginnings, the school has grown to one of magnificent proportions. As we behold it now we realize that all the effort that has gone into the building of the school and its character has been rewarded. It stands firmly established, leading the souls of youth nearer to Christian perfection.

The labor of those in other years has enabled the students of Central today to face the future with a brighter hope. We have recorded here the undertakings of these students, their classes and all their activities. We cannot depict, adequately, however, the spirit of the students and faculty that will lead it on, with God's help, to even greater heights.

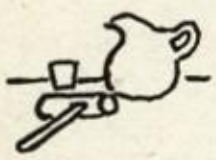
. . . . . Remember

The school bell rang, what do you know?
Fifteen hundred still wanted to go.

September

Fifteen years of labor passed,
Holy Rosary blessed at last.

October



Lawicki, Anderson, Comte and Manion,
As class presidents led their companions.

October

THE CENTRIC now got under way,
With Flo and Ned as its mainstays.

October

Four wins, five defeats, one tie,
To the football season we said goodbye.

November

The worst was over—they'd met at last,
Parents and teachers reviewed the past.

November

To reach the goal each one did strive,
Thus, a successful library drive.

November

Christmas comes but once a year,
So we all enjoyed it, have no fear.

December

A new semester had begun,
Time passed quickly, 'twas '41.

January

When ? ? ? ? ? ?

Father Kirsch appointed to go,
Play "Young Barry" was senior show.

February

Twelve city games our cagers played,
Six won, six lost; this score they made.

March

Easter vacation came around,
Seven full days to get unwound.

April

"Yeomen of the Guard" was quite a treat,
Again Mr. Sainton performed a feat.

April

Golf, tennis, baseball once more,
Warm days bring on fun galore.

April

May festa days were here once more.
Students sold tickets from door to door,

May

Students crowned the Queen of May,
Retreat for seniors meant "Think and Pray".

May

Commencement day had finally come,
Goodbye to the class of '41.

June

We went for a ride on the Put-in-Bay,
'Twas fun for us on this merry day.

June

Dedication

"If you have a friend worth loving,
Love him, yes, and let him know
That you love him, ere life's evening
Tinge his brow with sunset glow.
Why should good words ne'er be said
Of a friend 'til he is dead."

All the students of Central have indeed found a "friend worth loving" in Father Kirsch, whose promotion to the presidency of DeSales College will increase his opportunities of extending the Kingdom of Christ.

His qualities of leadership, his calm words of wisdom, and most of all his firm character have left an indelible impression in the hearts of all who knew Father Kirsch.

As a leader he guided us through the four most impressionable years of our lives, thus giving us the foundation on which to build an ideal of true Christian manhood and womanhood.

We could feel the depth of his wisdom when he told us to "fear God most of all, but next to God fear him who does not fear God." It was not spiritual assistance alone, however, but the sagacity of a modern educator which prepared us to face the world with the background of a thorough education.

As the sun shining through a prism, diffusing myriads of colors did the spirit of Christ illuminate his character, bringing to light the virtues of a true Catholic gentleman. Because of his prudence, his quiet understanding manner, his pleasing personality, and his unlimited patience, we admired, respected and endeavored to imitate Father Kirsch.

We cannot fully express in words our affection for him; therefore, we, the class of 1941, dedicate to Father Kirsch the twenty-first volume of the Centripetal, hoping that it will be as a tiny mirror, reflecting for him a part of the life of Central, as he knew it during the past seventeen years.

THE MOST REVEREND KARL J. ALTER, D. D., LL. D.
Bishop Of Toledo

On June 17, 1931, the Most Reverend Bishop, Karl J. Alter, was consecrated in St. Francis de Sales Cathedral as the third Bishop of the Diocese of Toledo. He has, since that time, done much to raise the standards of education in the diocese. Because of the interest and loyalty he has shown toward Central, he has endeared himself to the heart of each and every student.

REV. JOHN L. HARRINGTON, A. M., S. T. B.
Administrator

The Reverend John L. Harrington was appointed assistant principal at Central in 1937. In a way, he too is a "senior" because he came to Central the same year in which the Class of 1941 were freshmen. Father Harrington has guided the Student Spiritual Council, taught Religion and Sociology and held the difficult task of disciplinarian. When Father Kirsch was appointed to the presidency of DeSales College on March 6, Father Harrington became administrator.

In Memoriam

VERY REV. MSGR. FRANCIS J. MACELWANE,
Late President of DeSales College.

In memory of the Very Reverend Francis J. Macelwane, former president of DeSales College and first principal of Central Catholic High School, who died December 5, 1940.

The city of Toledo lost one of its foremost citizens and educators when Monsignor Francis Macelwane passed away. His kindness and earnest desire to help everybody won for him the good will and hearty co-operation of every Catholic, and the friendly consideration of those outside the Church.

Monsignor Macelwane distinguished himself by his untiring and unselfish efforts in behalf of the Church, and for his zealous efforts in the interest of Catholic education. ..He endeared himself to the hearts of his students by his magnetic personality, his devoted service and loyalty.

We, the students of Central Catholic High School, should thank God that we have felt the influence of such a man, for he was a great churchman and a gentleman, a student and a scholar, the man who founded the school that means so much to us.

In Memoriam

This page of The Centripetal is dedicated to the deceased faculty members and students of Central. It is printed with the hope that the present student body will offer an occasional prayer for those of Central who have gone before into eternity.

THERESA ANNARINO

TO OUR four years of high school, we Seniors bid farewell. We leave Central with many pleasant memories and a few sad regrets.

Beginning with the selection of the class officers and following with the publications of The Centric and The Centripetal, the outstanding presentations of "Young Barry" and "The Yeomen of the Guard," the Senior retreat and the election of the valedictorian and the salutatorian—we find that our Senior year has been a great success.

The end of our four years of social life—years of happy associations and of training under competent instructors, years during which our school has occupied an important place in our lives—brings us to the anticipation of what lies over the threshold of a new era.

With hearts overflowing with appreciation, we shall endeavor to accomplish whatever we undertake, so that we may gain greater glory for our Alma Mater.

Our Turn Now

The day . . . which once seemed so remote . . . draws near . . . and now it is our sorrowful task . . . to join the ranks of thousands . . . whom Central has sent forth into the whirl of life.

Comes our chance . . . to practice the ideals we've learned . . . through these four years . . . with Christian faith we face a pagan world . . . our one great aim . . . to be a credit to our school . . . Central . . . whose name we will always cherish . . . Central . . . our Alma Mater.

EDWARD DONOHER, '41.

The Juniors

Class Officers

President.....HARRY ANDERSON
Vice-President.....DOROTHY GIRARD
Secretary.....JAMES CARNEY
Treasurer.....DORIS LANGENDERFER

AS ANOTHER school term comes to an end, the 365 members of the Junior class can look with satisfaction upon the path they have traveled this year. Real school spirit and excellent co-operation have marked their participation in all school activities.

An average of fifty Juniors was always found on the student honor roll, thus illustrating the class's scholastic ability.

Many of its members did work in the Glee Club, Band and Orchestra. Juniors were always conspicuous by their presence on the gridiron, basketball floor, baseball diamond, bowling alleys, tennis courts and golf links.

By their competent work, exemplified in the gathering of material for their research essays, and in the publication of the Junior Centric, they have shown the qualities necessary for a good Senior Class.

So it is with confidence in the ability of the Juniors to carry on the traditions of the school that the Class of '41 gives place to the Class of '42.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS of 237 boys and 155 girls proved itself outstanding in all activities of the past year.

Sophomores were prominent in all branches of the Music Department and many had parts in the operetta. In addition, thirty-four gridders, seventeen cagers and seven keglers were second-year men.

This class surpassed all others in attendance during the first semester, with ninety-one students out of 392 maintaining a perfect record.

Keep up the good work, Sophomores! Central needs students with your ambition and resourcefulness.

TO MARY, MOTHER OF MANKIND

Mother of the Son Divine,
Who blessed us when He made us thine,
Keep us from dark angels' might;
Shield us by thy mantle white,
Made of everlasting light.

Mother didst thou guide His Hand
Who fashioned sky, and sea, and land?
Guide our hearts that we may sow
The seeds of kindness here below,
As did thy Son so long ago.

Let us keep love's fire burning
By Our Savior's lesson learning,
We shall follow thy pure way,
That when life's light is gone, we may
See the everlasting day.

—Sophomores, 1941

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

St. Joseph, Patron of a happy death
Make me more like thee,
Guide my life with your knowing hand
Lead me to eternity.

When my wandering footsteps stray
Be ever at my side,
To lead me back to your Son
Where peace and love abide.

The Freshmen

Class Officers

President ..... JAMES MANION
Vice President ..... ROSE MARIE WILHELM
Secretary ..... GIDEON SPIEKER
Treasurer ..... PATRICIA O'BRIEN

ZEAL and enthusiasm shone on the faces of 446 freshmen as they entered Central in September, 1940. The student body of the entire school was deeply impressed by these on-coming youngsters.

Regardless of the fact that it was their first year at Central, these freshmen showed intelligence as well as wisdom in choosing class officers. Much of the success of the freshman class was due to the leadership of these officers.

The freshmen were successful in showing their aptness for studies by having a large percentage on the 5A and 4A list.

With these records in mind we can only remark that Central's traditions will be well upheld in the coming years by the seniors of 1944.

Well begun is half done! More power to next year's sophomores.

CHRIST, THE KING

A King
Came down to earth,
In guise of a poor meek babe,
Men heaped upon Him scorn and a crown
Of thorns.

A King
Comes now to earth,
Concealed in a host so white,
Oh, let Him reign in the kingdom of
Your hearts.

—Edward Donoher, '41.

MOTHER LOVE

The Child Jesus raised His Head
And looked into her face,
With meaning deep which seemed to say
Hail Mary! full of Grace.
She held His Little Hand so tight
And touched His curly Hair,
Whispering as she kissed His Cheek
"My Son, Thou art so fair.

—Mary Jane Winhoven, '41.

Organization

STAIRWAY, AUSTIN STREET ENTRANCE

"Almighty everlasting God, who in Thy beloved Son, King of the Whole world, hast willed to restore all things anew; grant in Thy mercy that all the families of nations, rent asunder by the wound of sin, may be subjected to His most gentle rule."

MAIN ALTAR OF CHRIST THE KING

"O, Virgin Mary, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, glory of the Christian people, joy of the Universal Church, salvation of the world, pray for us, and awaken in all the faithful, devotion to the Holy Eucharist in order that they may render themselves worthy to receive it daily."

Central Catholic High School was founded to provide Catholic youth with a liberal, thorough, practical education in order to contribute useful members to society, and by the instilling of Christian principles and ideals, to enable them to work out their eternal destiny. Being essentially a Catholic High School the study of religion holds first place in its curriculum. Four years of Religion are required of each student.

Many classes engaged in various activities during vocation week, and others made sacramental charts, or held study club discussions in connection with the Catholic Church. A detailed study of the sacrament of Matrimony was made by the Senior class.

The senior classes were again under the direction of the following diocesan priests: The Rev. K. A. Hans, Rev. John Kofflin, who replaced the Rev. J. J. Malone, Rev. Robert Curtis, Rev. John Radlinski, Rev. John L. Harrington, Rev. Joseph D. Shenk, Rev. Arthur T. Schmit, and the Rev. Gerald W. E. Dunne. The book "Faith and Reason" used by the Senior classes is based on the defense of the fundamentals of the Catholic Church.

The Junior religion classes made a study of the Catholic Church, while some made a detailed study of the lives of the saints and apostles.

The Sophomores studied the Means of Grace. Several groups made booklets and charts as an extra activity.

The Commandments of God and the Church made a very interesting study for the Freshman Class.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

President ..... THOMAS ANDERSON
Vice-President ..... NANCY LAYDEN
Secretary ..... RITA POLLAUF
Sergeant-At-Arms ..... EDWARD DONOHER
Faculty Adviser ..... REV. J. L. HARRINGTON

The Student Spiritual Council saw the completion of its fifth year in 1941. The organization has a twofold purpose: the union of all the religious committees of the school so that the Kingdom of Christ may be further spread, and the personal sanctification of its individual members.

Incorporated in the S. S. C. are the Apostolic Committee, the Saint John Berchmans Sanctuary Society, the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the Catholic Action Cells, the Catholic Literature Committee, the St. Hilda Guild, and the Eucharistic-Our Lady Committee.

THE CATHOLIC LITERATURE COMMITTEE

This committee, under the supervision of Sister Angela Marie, O. S. U., aims to promote student interest in Catholic Literature.

The Literature group sponsored the clean literature drive and supervised the Catholic Book Week and National Book Week activities at Central. They also arranged the pamphlet rack in the lobby.

Student Spiritual Council

1-2-3. Senior boys of the St. John Berchmans Sanctuary Society.

4. Members of the St. Hilda Guild.

5. Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

SAINT JOHN BERCHMANS SANCTUARY SOCIETY

This society consisting of approximately one hundred fifty boys has the Rev. Joseph D. Shenk as moderator, and Sister Mary Louis, S. N. D., as faculty adviser.

In addition to assisting the priests at Holy Mass and Benediction services, about twenty senior boys served the visiting Bishops and priests during the week of the dedication of the Holy Rosary Cathedral.

SAINT VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

The Saint Vincent de Paul Society, under the supervision of Mr. V. C. Fischer, consists of nine members, who collected magazines and clothes for the less fortunate. These were distributed to various agencies and hospitals.

At Christmas time they supervised the management and distribution of baskets to the poor.

CATHOLIC ACTION CELLS

The Catholic Action Cells, under the direction of Miss Catherine McAleese, aim to help bring the world back to Christ.

The members of the Cells studied Mrs. Paul McGuire's Handbook and The Inquiry Method and discussed several well-known pamphlets. They also attended Mass and received Holy Communion once a month.

THE EUCHARISTIC-OUR LADY COMMITTEE

Under the direction of Sister M. Roselma, O. S. F., this committee aims to increase attendance at Mass and to promote personal devotion to Christ and His Blessed Mother.

Its most important projects are the leading of the stations during Lent, the convocation program in May, and the leading of the Missa Recitata at Mass.

SAINT HILDA GUILD

The preparation of the Altar for Mass, the care of the sanctuary and sacristy, laying out the vestments and arranging the altar are included in the activities of the Saint Hilda Guild.

This unit functions through the girls' art department under the direction of Sister Mary Hilda, S. N. D.

THE APOSTOLIC COMMITTEE

The Apostolic Committee, under the direction of Sister Mary Charlotte, S. N. D., and Sister Mary Alma, S. N. D., aims to develop in the students loyalty and devotion to the Church.

The Christmas seal drive, the Mission Drive and Parish Loyalty Week were the three important works sponsored by the committee.

Religious Honor Roll

Central Catholic High School's Honor Roll consists of those graduates and former students who have dedicated their lives to God as priests and religious.

Boys' Art Department

1. Junior and senior art students with their clay models which are ready for casting.
2. Second year students drawing foundation plans in Room 42.
3. Third and fourth year students are designing individual interior parts in Room 42.

☆

Seven years ago Mr. Ludwig E. Thuel established the Boys' Art Department. Since then it has increased in size and has become a very interesting and popular course.

Although Mr. Thuel started his class with only a few students, he now has two assistants, Mr. Norman Sulier, a senior at De Sales, and Mr. Thomas Gallagher, a student at De Sales College.

During the past year the students of this department have become proficient in their work, through the medium of a highly developed course. Progress is evident in all of the fields offered, but especially in the drawing and designing of the problems of the fine arts. Original designing is considered here the most valuable and essential work in art.

☆

This department offers courses in:

1. Geometric drawing.
2. Applied perspective.
3. Architectural designing.
4. Building construction.
5. Interior designing.
6. Furniture designing.
7. Furniture construction.
8. Modeling.
9. Casting.
10. Various types of finishes on wood and plaster.
11. Plaster crafts (modeling of buildings in plaster).
12. Landscape architecture.
13. Free hand writing.
14. Oil painting.

Girls' Art Department

1. First year students making pen sketches in Room 205.
2-3-4-5. Junior and Senior students forming clay models.
6. First year students practicing lettering in Room 205.

"Nothing makes the soul so pure, so religious, as the endeavor to create something perfect; for God is perfection, and whoever strives for it, strives for something that is Godlike. True painting is only an image of God's perfection — a shadow of the pencil with which He paints, a melody, a striving after harmony."

Michael Angelo.

The Girls' Art Department offers a variety of courses for students aiming for a higher appreciation of beauty.

Sister Mary Hilda S. N. D. is the art instructor. Her classes are divided into three groups each occupying two periods.

The first-year class consisting of thirty-one students have studied color theory, composition, free hand sketching in water colors, and lettering.

Poster work and designing in pen and ink are offered to the second-year students.

Junior and Senior girls together have studied designing and interior decorating, free hand drawing in pastels, and also the applying of theatrical makeup.

This year during photography for the year book, the Junior and Senior girls were instructed in the art of modeling by Mr. L. E. Thuel. Both groups of girls showed remarkable talent and noteworthy work was produced.

Roseann Eberle completed the bust of "An Indian Girl", Rita Pollauf modeled "An Average Woman", and Nancy Layden completed the head of "City Lass". Other heads were made by Ellouise Couturier, Helen O'Brien, Margaret Neidhardt, and Eileen Madden.

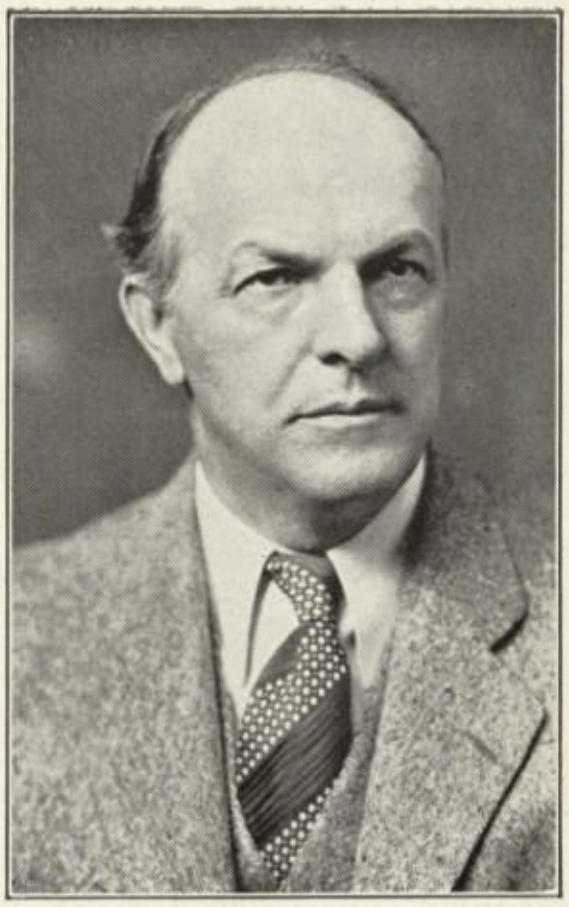
Both the Junior and Senior girls have charge of all photographic plates for the yearbook.

Music Department

The Music Department, composed of the orchestra, band, and glee club, has one hundred sixty-four members. These groups under the personal direction of Mr. Joseph Sainton, who has been connected with Central for ten and one-half years. This year, for the first time Mr. Sainton directed the dramatic as well as the musical part of the operetta.

Mr. Sainton is prominent in the musical circles of New York, Minneapolis and Toledo and at one time was director of the Toledo Philharmonic Orchestra.

Sr. M. Camillus, O. S. F., is faculty adviser of the entire music department.



MR. JOSEPH SAINTON

Joseph Sainton

Orchestra

The Orchestra, one of the very active groups of the school, consists of thirty members. The instruments played in it are eight first violins, seven second violins, three clarinets, two trombones, three bass viols, two cellos, three trumpets, two tympani, and a piano.

Programs at various assemblies have often been presented by the orchestra and glee club, one of the most significant being the farewell to Father Kirsch, at which they rendered several numbers.

Not to mention their role in the spring operetta, they also contributed much to the success of the senior play, "Young Barry."

The Orchestra takes time out for a pose.

Gerald Plank

Drum Majors

It will be quite a task to find two capable drum majors to replace Joseph Sheperd and his assistant, Gerald Plank, a pair of seniors who have led the band through many difficult formations for three years.

Their stellar handling of the silver baton has marked Central's fine musical personnel as unique, and we are justly proud of them.

Joseph Sheperd

Band

Sixty-five gaily clad musicians of Central's band thrilled the crowds at the football games last fall with their superb playing and intricate formations between the halves.

Much of the credit for the spectacular exhibitions must be given to Mr. Joseph Sainton, director of the band, and Mr. Francis J. Menichetti, drillmaster. Mr. Menichetti devised many marching formations which were beautifully executed and proved very interesting to the spectators.

This year the band has a new method for the musical training. Instead of the old style joint rehearsal, Mr. Sainton has inaugurated a program in which four days a week are set aside for sectional rehearsal, and one for the complete band. In this way Mr. Sainton is able to work more with the individual player, and thereby get a much better trained band.

We are confident that next year's band will do even better than this year's fine personnel.

The Band gets ready to "Cheer for old Central High."

Glee Club

The girls in the Glee Club get ready for rehearsal.

Another outstanding division of the Music Department is the Glee Club, composed of seventy-eight members, having as its purpose the development of the singing voice and of music appreciation.

This group has undertaken many great projects throughout the year, of which Gilbert and Sullivan's light opera, "The Yeomen of the Guard" was their best production.

At Christmas and on many other occasions the Glee Club presented programs, of which the farewell assembly to Father Kirsch was the most impressive. At this program they sang "Fair Ellen", written by Max Bruch.

The Glee club is under the direction of Mr. Joseph Sainton and the supervision of Sr. M. Camillus, O. S. F., which fact accounts for the splendid work accomplished by this group.

The boys rest their vocal chords while the picture is snapped.

Mr. Eugene Miller

Dramatic Club

Central has again proved true to tradition and has rounded out the school year with two superior productions staged by the Dramatic Club. This club is composed of the seniors interested in the production of the Senior Class Play and the Musical Comedy.

The direction of the dramatic enactment was handled by Mr. Eugene Miller for the play and by Mr. Sainton for the musical comedy.

Sister Mary Callista, O. S. U., is the faculty moderator of the club.

Mr. Joseph Sainton

"YOUNG BARRY"

A sparkling three-act comedy by Dana Thomas entitled "Young Barry" was presented by the class of '41 on the evenings of February 7, 8, and 9 in the school auditorium.

The play centers around the title role, Young Barry, who goes to New York for fame and fortune, but finds failure and famine instead. Footsore and weary he returns home. The townspeople, thinking he is a star, turn out to bid him welcome. Even the Mayor is on hand.

Poor Eddie only wishes he had done as well as the town thinks he has. Yet he can not bring himself to tell them of his failure. Complications arise in the form of Barry's sweetheart, Ann; an aspiring heiress; and two very active club women, who wish to denounce Barry as a fraud.

All ends happily, however, when young Barry gets a job, wins back his girl and re-establishes himself in the town.

"THE YEOMEN OF THE GUARD"

Gilbert's and Sullivan's "The Yeomen of the Guard" was presented on the evenings of April 19, 20 and 21 at Central.

The story tells of Colonel Fairfax's proposed execution by Sir Poltwhistle, who upon Fairfax's death will fall heir to the Colonel's fortune, if the latter remains unmarried. To thwart these plans Fairfax marries Elsie, a girl he has just met.

Shortly, thereafter, Fairfax escapes from Poltwhistle, and thus we find Jack Point distressed, for he is in love with Elsie who is married to someone whom she has never seen.

The tale ends happily, however, for all—except Point, "whose soul was sad and whose glance was glum."

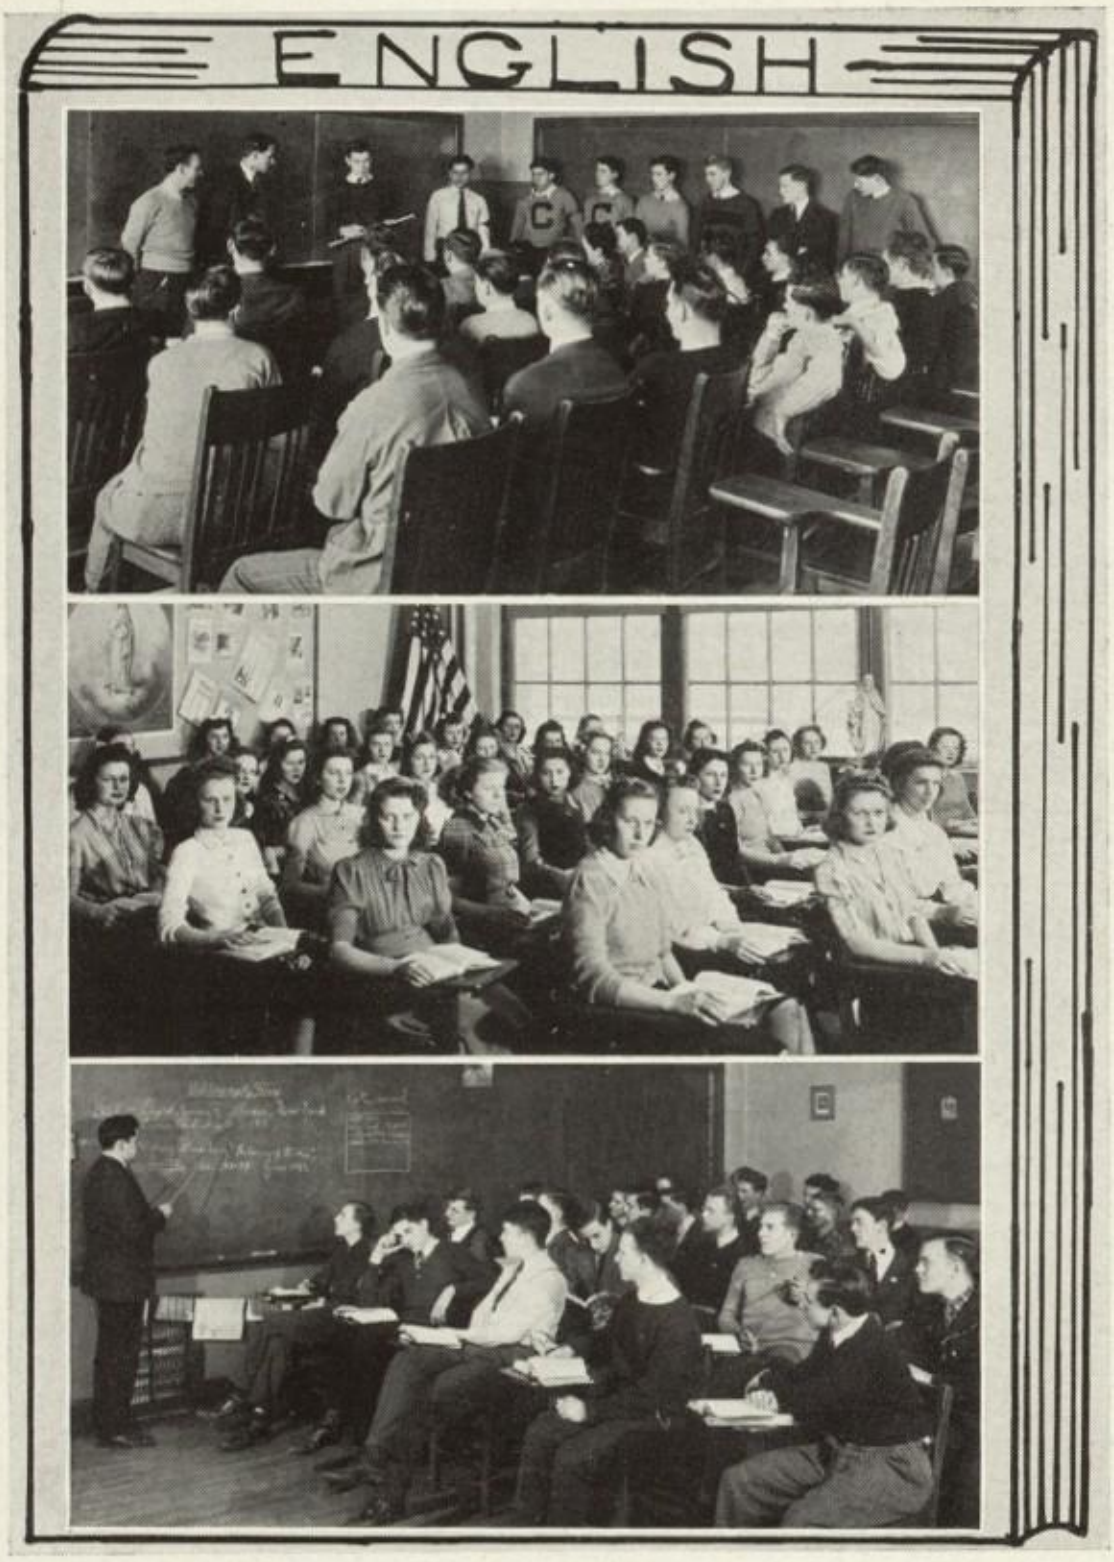
English Department



1. Mr. Bagdonas' class in public speaking demonstrates high points of good speech.

2. Sister Mary Magdalene interests her class of Senior girls in the study of "Victorian Poetry."

3. Sister John Berchmans' Junior boys brush up on footnotes for the annual Junior essay.

English being a required subject, every student at Central is enrolled in one of the forty-seven classes held daily. The aim of the study of English is to help the student to carry on effectively the normal language activities of school and life; to teach him to observe accurately; to speak and write his thoughts clearly and forcefully; to develop the urge for creative expression; to appreciate the finer things in life as found in the world's best literature, and to apply the lessons of literature to the problems of life.

There are thirteen freshman classes, twelve sophomore, twelve junior, and ten senior classes which are in session daily. The senior course includes journalism, public speaking and English literature.

Public speaking, one of the most interesting English courses, is offered to Senior boys. The journalism classes, open to Seniors only, are taught the essentials of news editing. They also edit the CENTRIC, the bi-weekly school paper. The Literature groups emphasize the American and English Catholic writer and his various works.

The English Department is under the supervision of the Ursuline Sisters with Sr. Angela Marie, Sr. M. Austin, Sr. M. Callista, Sr. Mr. Fabian, Sr. M. Grace, Sr. John Berchmans, Sr. M. Magdalene, Sr. M. Wilhelmina, three Franciscan Sisters, Sr. M. Consilia, Sr. M. Joseph, Sr. M. Loretta, and one lay teacher, Mr. John Bagdonas.

The CATHOLIC SCHOOL PRESS ASSOCIATION

The Centric, a bi-weekly school publication, is edited and financed by the journalism classes. Its chief aim is to give a complete picture of student activities.

Aiding the capable co-editors, Edward Donoher and Florence Triendl, were the associate editors, Helen Menke, Helenjean Williford and Nancy Layden; the copy editors, Joyce Corrigan and Rosemary Byersmith, Richard Kolhoff, the managing editor.

The various antics of the athletes were recorded by the sports editors, Richard Voss and James Louy who recounted the wins and losses of the foo tball, basketball teams and all other branches of sport. Helen O'Brien and Virginia Sattler kept the school informed on the activities of the girls' gym classes.

The paper was brightened by the humorous and woeful tales of the feature editors and most of the news was covered by the staff reporters each assigned to a particular "beat".

The Department heads, Mary Bodette, Ruth Cothrel, Norma Jaehn, Joyce Bader and Ervin Nusbaum had their hands full with the humor column, alumi news and art work.

The business staff under the direction of Marcia Barret and her assistant, Betty Jane Dunn had charge of the financial worries. George Rood and Helen Kranz divided the work of the advertising department while the circulation staff, headed by Genevieve Konicki, stimulated sales and handled distribution.

The Centric is a member of the Quill and Scroll, Catholic School Press Association and the National Scholastic Press Association. The issues published during the first semester were submitted to the N. S. P. A. critical survey in competition with publications from schools all over the country. In this survey the Centric received First Class Honor rating.

Sister Mary Austin, O. S. U., is faculty adviser.

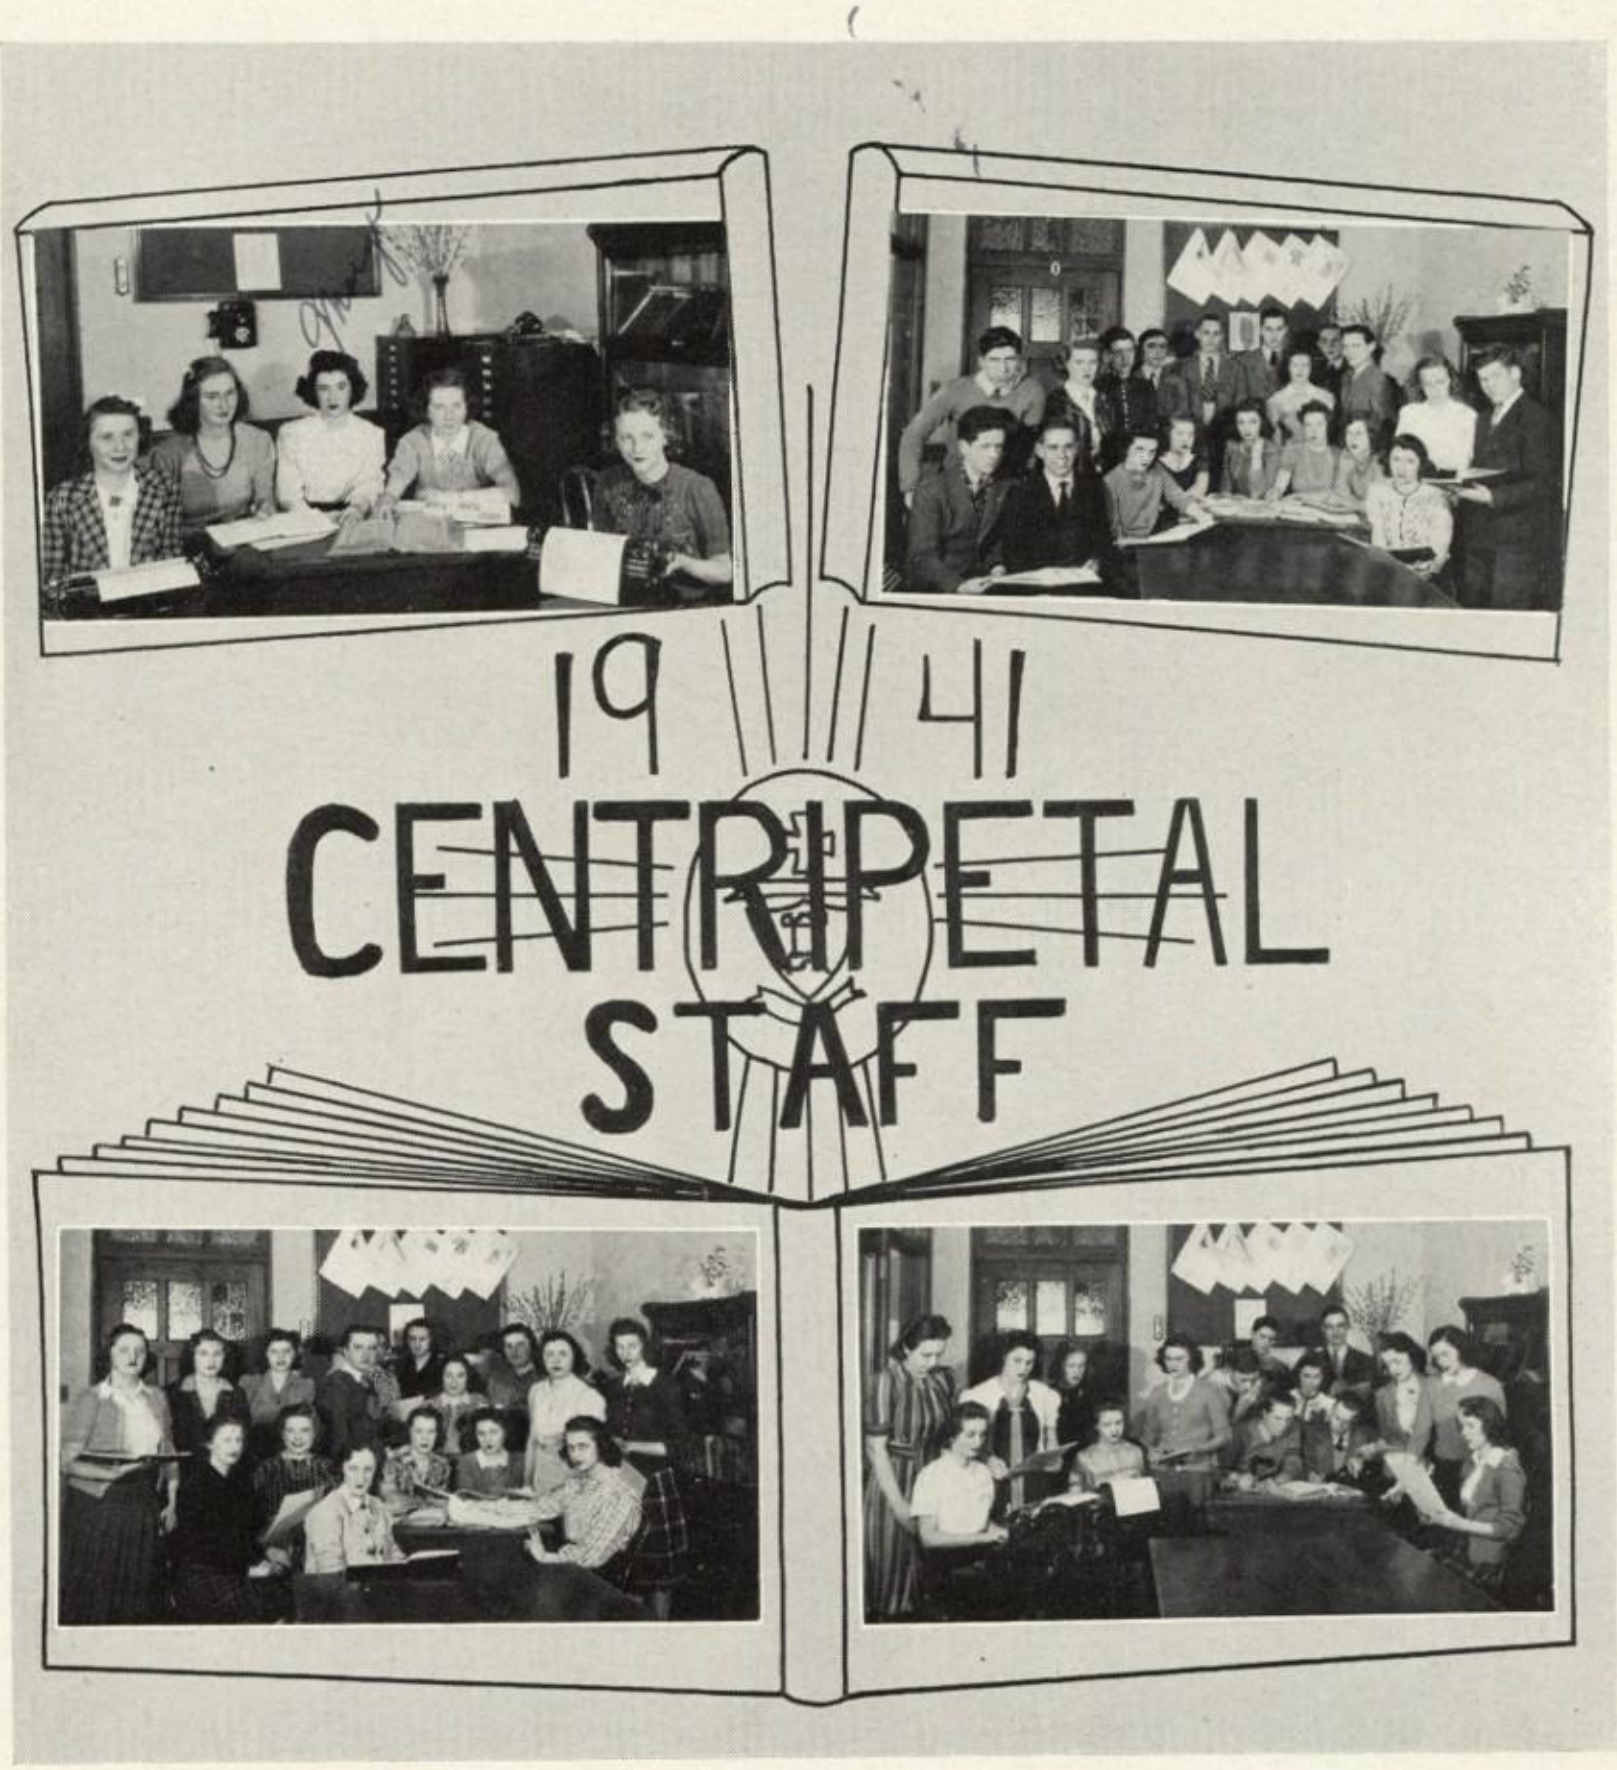
The Centripetal

THE YEAR 1941 marks the twenty-first appearance of The Centripetal. It is exclusively a senior project, financed and edited by the Senior Class. The yearbook serves not only as a souvenir for the seniors in future years but also as a review for the underclassmen, picturing and explaining, as it does, all the curricular and extra-curricular activities in which they participated.



(1) Typists and Copy Editors type and read the copy.

(2) Senior, Underclass, Calendar and Sports Editors place their respective pages.

(3) Organization and Senior Art Editors check committees and outline art work respectively.

(4) Business, Advertising, Circulation, Cashier and Office Managers and Typists make necessary arrangements for business transactions.
Co-Editors, Associate Editors and Art Co-Editors discuss and make plans for 1941 yearbook.

Modern Language Department

1. This is Sister Rose Agnes' second year Spanish class in Room 203.

2. German students spend a valuable half-hour looking at German postcards and pictures.

3. These students in Room 215 are studying French under Sister Roselma's supervision.

During the past year there were three first-year Spanish classes, each numbering some thirty or more students. Three-fourths of the students studying Spanish were boys, and about two-thirds were upper-class members.

In the course of the study of the language, the students were acquainted not only with the spirit and culture of Spain, the mother country of the Spanish-speaking world, but more especially with that of Spanish-speaking America.

As an added incentive to the students, membership was offered in the "El Circulo de Honor" for an all-A record. Marilyn Holley and Edward Donoher were president and vice-president of the organization.

The aim of Central's Spanish department is to develop a real understanding of the people whose soul and whose language is that of Catholic Spain, and who share the beauty and the freedom of America with us.

The German students find it interesting, in addition to their regular class work, to study German life and learn of Germany's contribution to civilization in the fields of art, science, music and literature. They try to acquire a sympathetic understanding of the culture and of the ideals of these great people who have added so much to the growth of our own nation.

Students have an opportunity of studying at least three years of German, thus obtaining a thorough knowledge of the language.

The German classes are taught by Sister M. Consilia, O. S. F.

The purpose of the French course as followed at Central is to teach the students to read the language, to speak it and to acquaint them with the civilization and the character of the French people.

French students are urged not only to study the language but, by penetrating into the customs of the people, to gain the inspiration that the language gives. To aid in the study, the French students read short stories and have the opportunity of seeing a number of French films.

The French department is under the supervision of Sister M. Roselma, O. S. F.

Latin Department

This year a series of Latin books written by the Reverend Robert J. Henle, S. J., of Loyola University, Chicago, were introduced into the various Latin classes.

The second-year class under the direction of Sister M. Charlotte, S. N. D., entered a Latin Essay Contest, sponsored by the American Classical League. Central was awarded a trophy by the Association for the promotion of the study of Latin in the yearly competitive tests. Ralph Reichert was the winner of the gold medal in 1940, and Jeanne Drouillard, Vincent Richard, John Wirries, Thomas Anderson, Edward Donoher, and Eugene Lovisa, all of the class of '41, received honorable mention in the same test.

Irma Rutkowski, '42, and Thomas Donoher, '43 were Gold Medal Winners from among the first-year students. Honorable mention was given to Anna Giles, '44. James Meiring, '42, and Richard Kayser, '42, in the second-year class, received honorable mention.

The department has 374 boys and 173 girls, and is under the supervision of the Reverend Arthur T. Schmit, Sister M. Alma, S. N. D., Sister M. Casildis, S. N. D., Sister M. Annelle, S. N. D., Sister M. Charlotte, S. N. D., and Sister M. Gordian, S. N. D.

Sister Mary Alma's Latin students stress the motive of good living "to Jesus through Mary." Sister Gordian's third year Latin class pose with the trophy award which they won this year.

Mathematics Department

"Mathematics underlies present day civilization in much the same far-reaching manner that sunshine underlines all forms of life, and we unconsciously enjoy the blessings of sunshine."

With the foregoing statement 1037 Central students have undertaken the unending task of obtaining a practical knowledge in Mathematics.

Proficiency and accuracy are goals set for the senior students of Advanced Algebra, Trigonometry and Solid Geometry. Members of the junior classes study the work of ancient mathematicians while the sophomores learn of the application of plane geometry in the home, industry, and in nature. The fundamentals of Algebra are mastered by the freshmen.

One of the major projects of the Mathematics classes is the publication of the AL-GEO-TRIG, issued quarterly, the purpose of which is to create and maintain an interest in and an appreciation of Mathematics.

Of course, just as Plato needed Socrates, so all students need their teachers. The Math department is under the supervision of the Franciscan Sisters, Sr. Bede, Sr. DeSales, Sr. Alberta, Sr. Constantia, and Sr. Teresita. Other teachers in the department are the Sisters of Mercy, Sr. Rose, and Sr. Aquinas, and the Rev. J. D. Shenk.

The Draftsmen Guild, under the excellent supervision of the Reverend Gerald W. E. Dunne A. M. Litt, D., and Mr. Bernard J. Carter, inaugurated into its ranks this year the Chi Rho Chapter '41.

Mechanical Drawing Department

At the beginning of the year, the Rev. Gerald W. E. Dunne purchased a Packard Deluxe Sedan which was completely dismantled by senior draftsmen. Every part was cleaned, tagged, and drawn in detail.

The seniors were assigned to certain departments, and were held responsible for the drawings in their division. Those assigned were: Transmission—John Waltzer, Armer Staebell and Robert Francis; steering—John Hagan and Wayne Harroun; differential—Norman Czaja and Eugene Nadrazik; brakes—John Kawecka and Francis Gladieux; electrical—VictorNawrocki and Vincent Cerevalo; motor—William Ramisch, Robert Brancheau, Harold Dazell, and Robert Dickman; frame—Gerald Plank and William Comte; gearing—Joseph Gdowik. The detail drawings in each division were completed during the latter part of January.

During February the elevation project of the 1929 Packard was taken up. The draftsmen who completed the elevations were: John Waltzer, longitudinal section of the transmission; John Kawecka, control mechanism of the brakes; Norman Czaja and Eugene Nadrasik, horizontal section of the differential and rear axle assembly; Armer Staebell, left-hand elevation of the chassis; Robert Dickman, right-hand elevation of the chassis; William Ramisch, latitudinal section of the motor; Robert Brancheau, right-hand elevation of the motor; and Victor Nawrocki, front cross section of the motor.

The work produced by the Guild this year, according to Father Dunne, was excellent. The drawing of the horizontal section of the differential and rear axle assembly was considered one of the finest pieces of work turned out since 1923, when Father Dunne came to Central.

Science Department

The Physics Class in Room 305 prepares for a movie.

Chemistry Class in Room 301 studies the iridescent light.

Fifth period Biology Class at work on their manuals.

BIOLOGY

"Nature reveals the harmonies of God."

In the study of biology the students are acquainted, not only with plant, animal and human life, but are also taught the proper scientific approach to be used in solving the problems of their environment. The important life functions, activities and adjustments of organisms are emphasized. These objectives are realized with the aid of experiments, home projects, observations, diagrams, models, charts and field trips.

Two hundred ninety-nine students availed themselves of the opportunity of studying the course under the supervision of Sister M. Camillus, O. S. F., Sister M. Agatha, O. S. F., and Sister M. Florian, O. S. F.

PHYSIOLOGY

Two physiology classes were taught by Sister M. Camillus, O. S. F. The seventy-five students enrolled in this course learned the functions of the organs of the human mechanism. They carry away a deeper appreciation of the intricate structure of the body and the importance of fostering habits to safeguard health.

GENERAL SCIENCE

General Science, as its name implies, embraces parts of the various natural sciences. The class is composed of Freshmen, with the exception of a few upper-classmen. Classes are taught by Sister M. Caroline, O. S. F., Sister M. Teresita, O. S. F., and Mr. Walter Grude.

CHEMISTRY

The study of the composition and constitutional changes of substance is chemistry. The laboratory is the chief source of interest in the course, and here are solved the most vexing problems. The class is taught by Sister Marie Therese, O. S. F.

PHYSICS

Physics is the branch of science which deals with the different forms of energy and the physical changes which they produce in matter. By applying the laws of physics to the problems of nature, the students are able to solve many puzzling questions.

The physics department is under the supervision of Mr. V. C. Fisher, B. S. E., B. E. E.

History Department

1. These senior girls are studying American History in Room 118, under the direction of Sister M. Austin, R. S. M.
2. John Ryan explores Africa by means of a pointer for the Modern History class in Room 219.
3. Sophomores call "time out" from a test in Room 220.

The History Department at Central, which is under the supervision of the Sisters of Mercy, conducts twenty-five classes daily, fourteen of which are composed of boys, ten of girls, and one a mixed group. Three general fields of history are offered to Central students: ancient, modern, and American.

The classes are taught by Sister M. Austin, Sister M. Germaine, Sister M. Imelda, Sister M. Paul, Sister M. Coronata, Sister M. Elaine, O.S.F., and Mr. Adolph Tscherne.

A new text book, "Lessons in Liberty", by Doctor Clarence Manion, professor of Constitutional Law at Notre Dame University, is being used for the first time this year by the senior American government classes. The purpose of the book is to isolate and explain the American government principle.

Together with "Lessons in Liberty" the text book "Our Government", by James Wilford Garner, Ph.D., LL. D., and Louise Irving Capen, Ph.D., is being used. "Our Government" familiarizes the student with the nature, structure and functions of the United States Government.

During the year the history classes participated in four essay contests, "One Nation Indivisible," sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and "What Uncle Sam Means To Me", sponsored by the Elks Club; the "National Defense Essay Contest", sponsored by the Ursula Wolcott Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The History Department of Notre Dame University conducted a contest in which the essay might be written on the Contribution Made to American History by either Roger B. Taney, Stephen A. Douglas, or St. Isaac Jogues, S.J.

Honor was brought to the senior history classes by Florence Triendl, who received a gold medal as first prize from the University of Notre Dame, for her essay on "Isaac Jogues", and also by James Mohler, whose essay, "What Uncle Sam Means To Me", won the first local prize in a national contest sponsored by the Elks' Lodge. In addition, he also received an award for having the best essay at Central. Mary Weinzapf and Gloria Walters received second and third prizes respectively, in the same contest. Helenjean Williford was one of the five winners in the "National Defense Essay Contest."

Commerce Department

First year typing students of Sister M. Thomasine's fifth period work with eyes strictly on copy.

First and second period bookkeeping classes balance their debits and credits.

TYPEWRITING

In first-year typing, the aim is such accuracy and technique as will enable the student to make from 30 to 40 words per minute with no more than 5 errors. Sr. Mary Annelle, S. N. D., and Sr. Mary Thomasine, S. N. D., are the instructors.

The aim of the advanced secretarial student is to achieve 60 words per minute. A workbook is used in connection with the text which contains every type of business transaction. The students are trained for direct office procedure and mimeograph instruction. Sr. Mary Louis, S. N. D., is the supervisor.

COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY

Two commercial geography classes of 30 students each are taught by Sr. Mary Thomasine, S. N. D. As a special project maps of the world were made. On these maps the high spots were located by using stamps of the various countries commemorating great events.

SHORTHAND

Five classes of first-year shorthand are taught by Sr. Mary Ludonna, S. N. D. Three volumes of Functional Method dictating books have been completed. Besides learning principles of shorthand they work for Gregg awards.

Three advanced classes are under the direction of Sr. Mary Louis, S. N. D. All students are expected to pass the 100-word transcription test before graduation. The Gregg Shorthand-dictation course used includes thirty-two types of business occupations.

BOOKKEEPING

Bookkeeping is the recording of mercantile transactions and the keeping of accounts. The purpose of this class is to teach the fundamentals of bookkeeping and the duties of the bookkeeper in business. A work book is used in connection with the text book, which provides study guides and exercises supplying the necessary drill. Two practice sets are used in which the students act as bookkeepers. Sister M. Eventia, S. N. D., is the instructor.

Home Economics Department

1. Just fine girls! Pulse normal, wounds healed, bandage ready to discard and when the priest will have administered the last sacraments, the sickest of of our patients will revive and what could work out better.
2. All ready now for our cooking lesson. A recipe; our ingredients, the application of a few of the latest methods and tra-la lunch is served.

In Home Economics the girls are taught what to do and what not.

Cooking and sewing and nursing the sick,

Make up application, should it be thin or thick?

P l a n ning, furnishing and keeping a home

So girls will know what to do when they have one of their own.

Briefly this little poem sums up the essential duties in which the girls of the Home Economics classes under the supervision of Sister M. Louis, O. S. U., are instructed. The course is divided into two years and different branches of this subject are stressed according to their importance.

In the first year the fundamentals of cooking and sewing are taught. The use of fabrics, cutting of patterns, actual sewing, and the care of clothing are studied. In the cooking division the girls learn how to set a table properly, prepare meals, and act as gracious hostesses at meals prepared by themselves and served to other members of the class. All agree that this part is the best.

The second year classes work in various units of the textiles, home nursing, home planning and furnishing, personality, and woman's relation to society. Besides several parties given during the year to show the cost, time and effort involved in entertaining and the satisfaction therefrom, each student decorated and furnished a miniature room as another project.

Two years of five double periods per week is the time allotted for this course.

The Student Council

1. Executive Body.
2, 3. Ushers at the senior class play.
4, 5, 6. Hall Patrol and Traffic Officers.

OFFICERS OF THE STUDENT COUNCIL

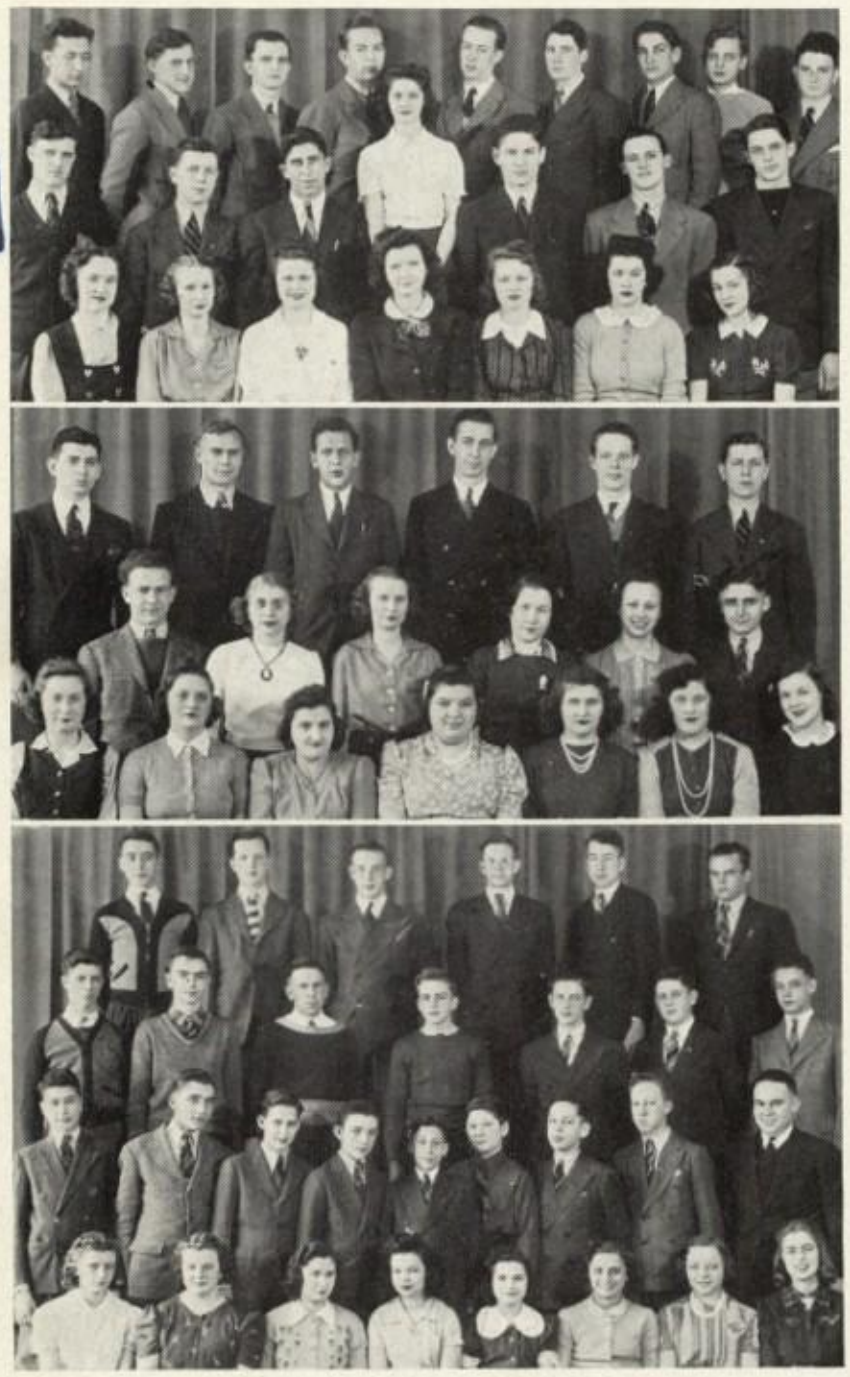
Vice-President.....FRANK MILLER
Secretary.....LILLIAN ANTESBERGER
Treasurer.....DOROTHY GIRARD

The Student Council



1. Executive committee of the Student Council.
2. Senior and Junior top-sellers in the Chronicle Drive with $5 or more.
3. Sophomores and Freshmen campaigners with $5 or more.

The Student Council, under the supervision of the Rev. Joseph D. Shenk and Sister Mary Eventia, S. N. D., aims to execute the opinions of the students in directing their civic and social activities.

On October 25 the representatives of the student body elected the officers and James Sattler was appointed Commissioner of Social Activities; Margaret Martin, Commissioner of Publicity; and John McAvoy, Commissioner of Traffic.

Color Day was observed October 31. Tag week was held during the week of November 21 concluding with a Thanksgiving dance. Two other dances sponsored by the Council were the Valentine Dance and the Spring Frolic.

The Hall Patrol and Traffic Officers regulated traffic on the stairs and in the halls and introduced the new hall permits. The members ushered at assemblies, and at various school activities. They also operated the Student Court.

The Community Chest Drive was also under the supervision of the Council.

Members were chosen to sell tickets for the outing to Cedar Point, June 17.

The Student Council has achieved new records and has perfected the work planned by the Council in past years.

During his four years at Central, Donald Wilhelm has been the High Point man in the Catholic Chronicle campaign which this year netted 1101 subscriptions amounting to $1879. In addition to this he was the third highest in the diocese this year with sixty-two subscriptions.

The Irish Add Another To The Trophy Case

Football

JAMES V. McCARTHY

Mr. McCarthy has completed his second year as head coach of varsity football. Under his guidance the team placed third in the city league, in spite of numerous injuries to the players.

The '40-'41 grid squad completed the season with four wins, five losses and one tie. In every game they carried the fighting spirit for which Central teams are noted. Win or lose, we are proud of the team and their efforts.

DR. IVOR COLLINS

Doctor Collins—Physician of this year's gridiron team is a true friend of all the boys and a big help to them when injuries were so numerous.

Scarlet And Grey Senior Gridmen

Back Row: Albert Kuron, Richard Ray, William LaFleur, William Metzger, William Walsh, William O'Brien.

FOOTBALL

The fine performance of the Irish line this year, won the plaudits of the whole school. But much of this honor belongs to Mr. John Bagdonas, assistant football coach, for the fine direction he gave the team. The lightweights too, made a name for themselves under his supervision.

Mr. Adolph Tscherne, baseball coach, had as a valuable assistant Mr. Maurice Connell, whose helpful advice profited the team this year as in past years.

JAMES "COZ" PRINTY—Center; 195 lbs.; Senior.

Jim was Central's contribution to the "All City Team." His stellar play always made him an Irish threat. His size enabled him to come across with three touchdowns. "Great work, Jim."

Most Valuable

MELVIN "PRES" LAWICKI — Left Guard; 148 lbs.; Senior.

"President" was a 148 lb. iron man. He always gave his best for his school, a true team player. Mel was the most valuable player, and also second string "All City."

Co-Captain

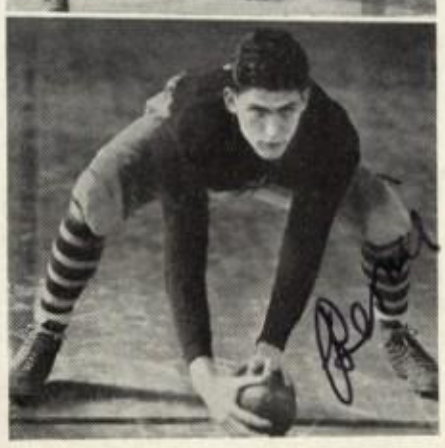
WILLIAM "FRENCHY" LaFLEUR— Quarterback; 165 lbs.; Senior.

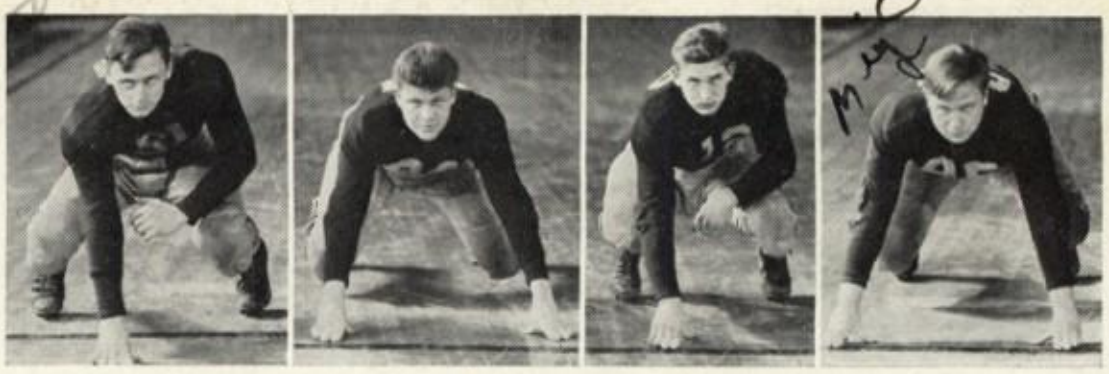
A great blocker, a swell fellow, and a very good field general. He was elected Co-Captain of 1940 squad. He was also second string "All City."

Co-Captain

EDWARD "DOGGIE" MACZKO— Right Guard; 160 lbs.; Senior.

"Doggie" battered down all opposition that came his way. He was also a great blocker and Co-Captain of the 1940 squad.





Football

1 JAMES "CORNS" CARNEY—Left End; 163 lbs.; Junior.
Jim is one of those football players who works hard all the time but never says anything of his own ability.

2 RICHARD "SPEED" CALMES—Left Half; 145 lbs.; Sophomore..
Dick is probably the fastest back in the city and in our opinion the best. He'll be here for two more years.

3 RICHARD "ROWDY" DAHN—Right End; 164 lbs.; Junior.
One of the hardest and roughest football players on Central's team; with ability to kick extra points. He will be back next year.

4 BERNARD "HICK" HICKEY—Center; 164 lbs.; Junior.
An accurate center with plenty of endurance. Bern has a great knack of backing up the line.

5 RICHARD "DICK" NAUGLE—Right End; 174 lbs.; Junior.
Although injured most of the year he showed great ability. Next year he will have the chance to prove his worth.

6 RAYMOND "AUGIE" FELDT—Right Tackle; 201 lbs.; Sophomore.
Ray started slow, but finally battled his way to the first string. Best of all, he is only a sophomore.

7 CLEMENT "SHOES" SHUBARGA—Left End; 172 lbs.; Junior.
Clem was known for his great blocking. More will be heard from him when he returns next year.

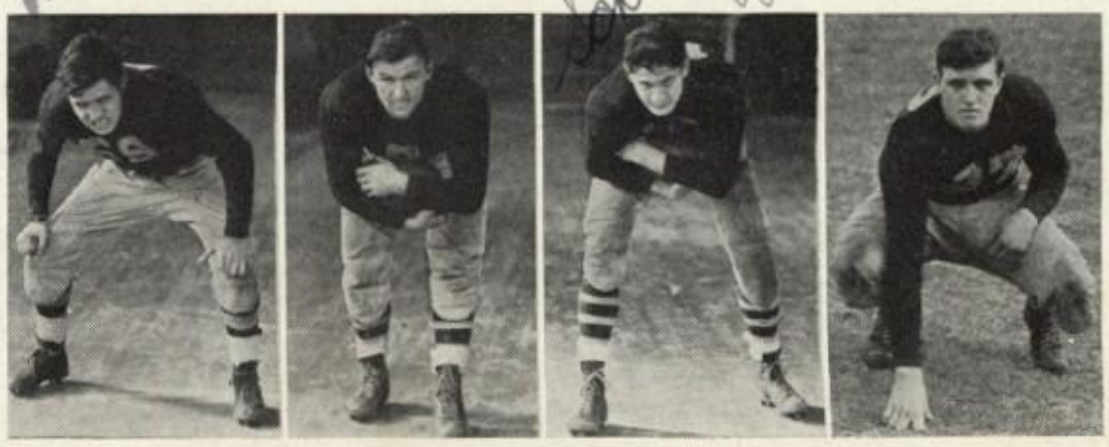
8 EDWARD "BEEF" KANNEY—Left Tackle; 215 lbs.; Junior.
Ed was one of the many junior stars. He always used his great weight to stop all opposition.

9 LEWIS "TUFFY" SCORZIELL—Right Guard; 167 lbs.; Junior.
"Tuffy" was always glad to rough it up and will see plenty of action next fall.

10 ALBERT "DOC" KURON—Fullback; 170 lbs.; Senior.
Doc was always the pepper pot of the team. Whenever yards were needed, Doc would go out and get them. A truly hard fighter.

11 FRANK "SCHNOZZE" MILLER—Fullback; 176 lbs.; Junior.
Frank was always a hard charger, ready to pick up a few extra yards and points.

12 HARRY "SONNY BOY" ANDERSON—Left Guard; 170 lbs.; Junior.
One of the most stalwart defense men. Harry will be back to bolster next year's team.



Football

1 JAMES "KRAUT" SCHUERMAN—Fullback; 156 lbs.; Junior.
Jim never gives up and can always pick up a sizeable gain. Of course he'll be back next year.

2 THOMAS "TOM" KRANZ—Right Tackle; 173 lbs.; Junior.
Tom really came into his own this season and we are expecting big things of him next year.

3 ALBIN "STONEY" KAMINSKI—Quarterback; 165 lbs.; Junior.
A fine ball player who likes to knock his man down. A team can always use a man like "Stoney."

4 GERALD "CHEVY" CHIAVERINI—Left Halfback; 150 lbs.; Senior.
One of Central's tiny speedsters who was at his best picking his way down the field.

5 HAROLD "TEDDY BEAR" MANION—Right Tackle; 186 lbs.; Junior.
After Harry had opened holes all the way down the field he would then drop back and add the extra point.

6 RICHARD "SMOKEY" RAY—Right Half; 168 lbs.; Senior.
A great halfback who was continually dogged by injuries. He excelled in the art of punting and was especially good at booting them out of bounds.

7 ROBERT "RABBI" McQUILLEN—Left Half; 164 lbs.; Junior.
Bob was a truly great triple threat back. He gained special renown for his distance passing.

8 WILLIAM "WILLIE" O'BRIEN—Left Half; 158 lbs.; Senior.
Willie's ability to shoot short passes to his receivers was on the par of a pro.

9 WILLIAM "WILD BILL" WALSH—Quarterback; 155 lbs; Senior.
Bill was a good field general whose knack for finding opposing weaknesses was unbelievable. He was known as the "most handsome boy on the field."

10 WILLIAM "STRETCH" METZGER—Right End; 175 lbs.; Senior.
Bill was a fine pass catcher and a great defense star. Sorry to see you leave.

11 EDWARD "TOBY" SKELDON—Center; 159 lbs.; Junior.
Ned's ability to open up the holes on offense and to back up the line on defense made him one of the team's most valuable players.

12 HAROLD "HORSE COLLAR" HASEMEYER—Right Half; 185 lbs.; Junior.
"Hasey's" great playing was cut short by an early injury but we all know we have a star in our midst.

Basketball

Central's varsity cage team battled their way to a first place tie in the city league and then went into a slump ending in fourth place as the season closed. In the tournament the Irish downed four opponents before bowing to Libbey in the finals.

Four veterans of last year's cage wars and six fast stepping juniors who moved up from the reserves supplied Central's City League opponents with some stiff competition during the past season.

BILL WALSH—Guard; Senior.

Bill had the knack of being where he was needed most. The opposition found it easier to detour around Bill when they wanted to get near the net. This veteran player will be sorely missed next year.

Chuck Mouch pictured here with the trophy awarded the Fighting Irish as runners up in the Class A district tournament.

VICTOR KOSYDAR — Forward; Senior.

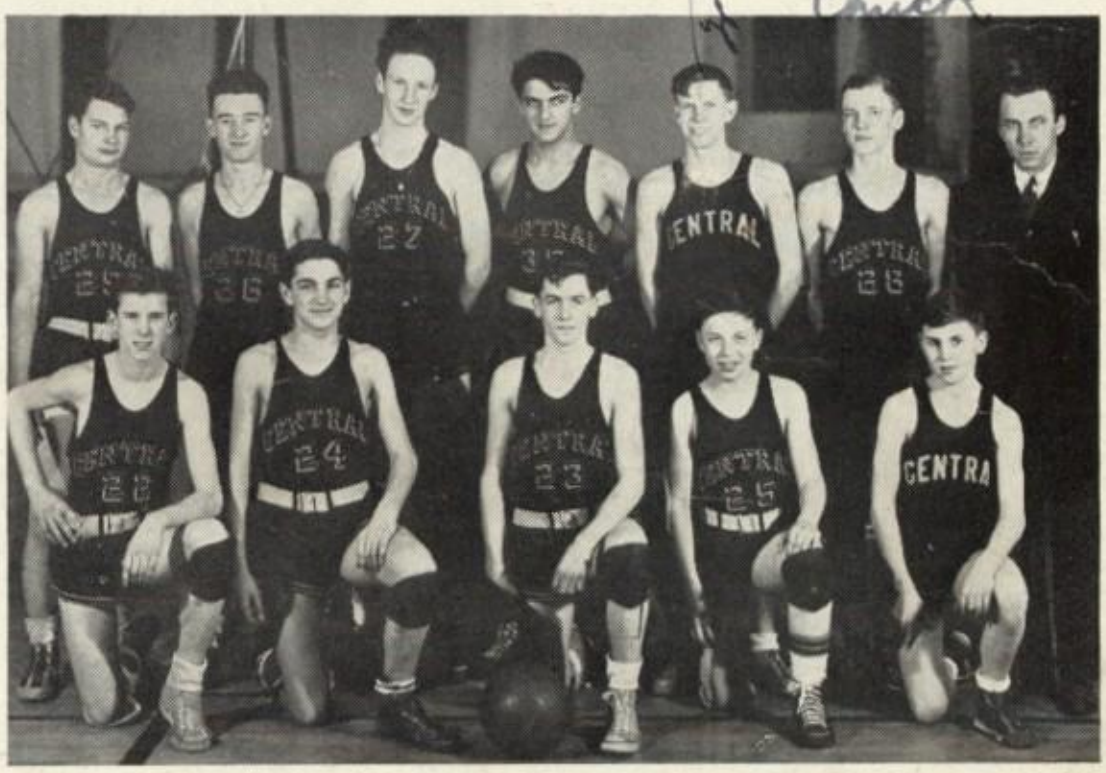
Vic, a veteran of three years experience, was a clever ball handler and an accurate shot. His point-making tactics will be missed next season.

■

LIGHTWEIGHTS

This year's lightweight cagers battled their way through a tough season and ended up in second place in the city league race. These boys will be a welcome addition to the 1941-'42 varsity basketball team.

■



BASKETBALL LIGHTWEIGHTS

Back Row: James DeMars, Richard Barry, John Danner, Daniel Jacobs, Andrew Flory, Charles Comes, Mr. John Bagdonas, Coach.

Front Row: Joseph Jacobs, Robert Comte, John Rooney, Carl Neeb, James Kuebler.

Basketball

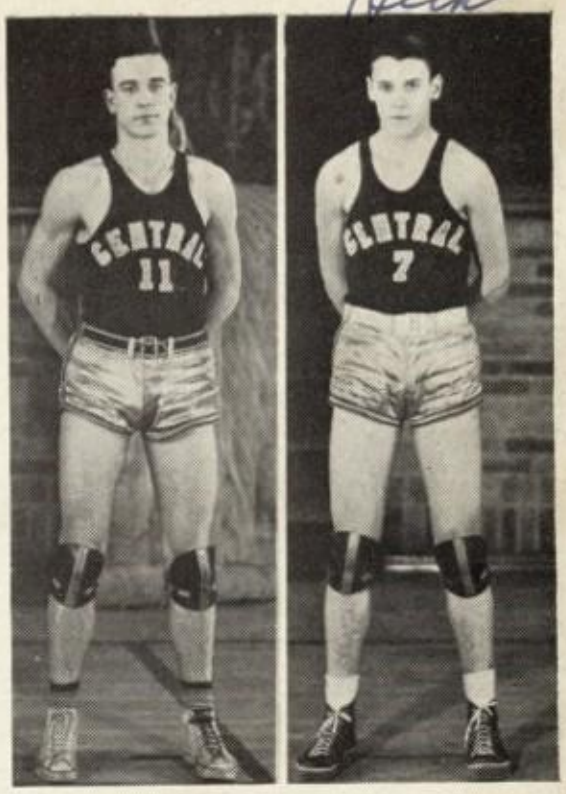
Robert McQuillen, Forward—Junior

Bob was Central's point-getter during the 1940-41 campaign and his high scoring ability will be a big help in the coming season.

Harold Hasemeyer, Center—Junior

Harold was a valuable man under the net. He was a standout in Central's offensive thrusts, a good foul shooter and better yet, he'll be back next year.

Adolph "Dutch" Tscherne took over the varsity cake team this year and led the boys through an exceedingly hard season with a fine record. Under "Dutch's" coaching the boys snatched fourth position in the City League race and battled their way to the finals in tournament where they bowed to Libbey.

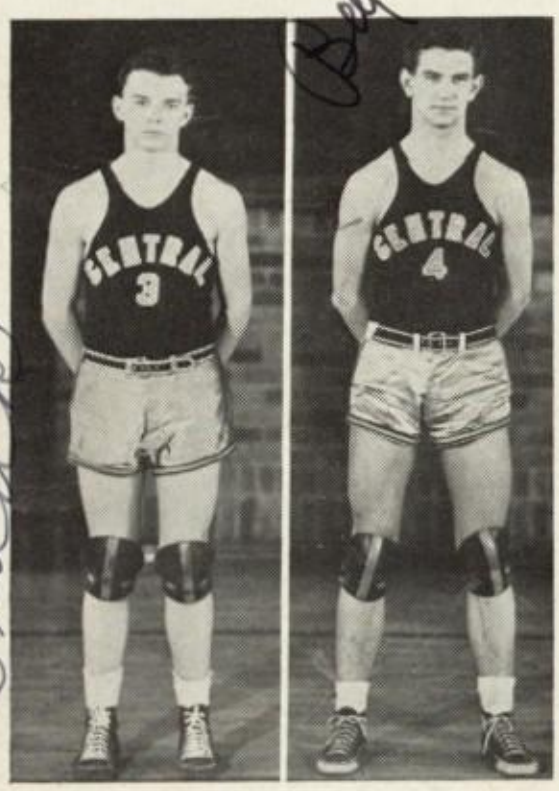


Bill Metzger, Forward—Senior

Bill was an all-around athlete and a star on both defense and offense. He was an expert at making the long shots from the center of the floor.

Richard Dahn, Guard—Junior

This aggressive guard was a mainstay of Central's zone defense. Dick, a team player, will return next year.

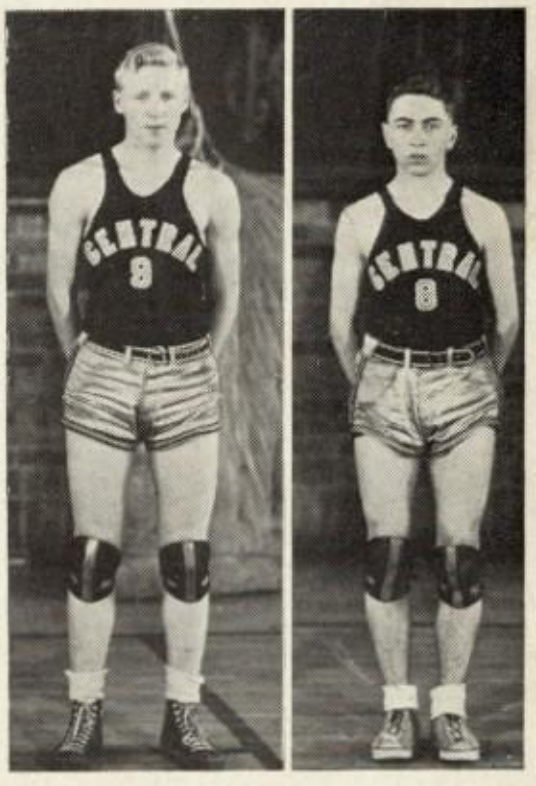


Frank Gilhooley, Guard—Junior

Frankie made his abilities known on all occasions. His steady and cool-headed floor play will help next season.

Ned Skeldon, Center—Junior

Ned had the right idea when it came to adding points to the Irish score. His aggressive type of play will be of much value during the '41-'42 campaign.



Bob Makin, Guard—Junior

Bob was outstanding for his brilliant defensive work. The team can count on h m for next year's battles.

Jack Gstalder, Forward—Junior

Another junior of whom greater things are expected next season. Jack makes up for his lack of height with his ability to hit the bucket from any spot on the floor.

Minor Sports

BASEBALL

With seven veterans returning, Central's 1941 baseball team under Coach Adolph "Dutch" Tscherne presents a hard hitting offensive nine with a nicely balanced infield and an outfield made up of veterans of last year's diamond wars. The pitching staff has shown real talent in the games this season.

The effective team play this year was made possible by the weeks of hard practice before the season started.

Back Row: Jack Gstalder, Andrew Pietrykowski, William LaFleur, James Rosenthal, Warren Daney, Victor Kosydar, Charles Mouch, Jack Moran, Frank Gilhooley, Richard Naugle, Kenneth Rober.

GOLF

This year's Golf Team, coached by John Waltzer and captained by Paul Pastorek, played the other Toledo High School golfers on the Ottawa Park golf course. This sextet, composed of Paul Pastorek, Gerald Chiaverini, John Waltzer, Michael Burcin, John Stalder and Edmund Naber, would prove stiff competition for anybody on any course.

TENNIS

Central's 1941 Tennis Team, coached by the Rev. J. D. Shenk, played DeVilbiss, Libbey, Woodward, Scott and Macomber on the Libbey High School courts. This year's team was chosen from this group of eleven prospects. Robert Wirth, John Wirries, Jim Carney, Edward Cieply, Robert Witt, Jack Ruppel, Eugene Nadrasik and James Sattler were the netters who finally made the team.

Bowling

Cheerleaders: Donald McQuade, Dick Blase, John Waltzer.

The cheerleaders who instill the school spirit into the fans and students are a bigger part of the sports program than most people think. They receive no credit for the work they do in every game played, and their moral support is in many cases the factor that decides the difference between victory and defeat.

Managers: Lawrence Simon, Elmer Kramer, Arthur Walsh, Renard Sikorski, Joe O'Brien, Michael Nugent.

Little is known of the tremendous work attached to the running of the teams at Central. The managers see to it that all this work is taken care of although few people know it. Their loyal help is appreciated by all the boys who are on the teams. Most of these boys are just starting in as managers and we want to thank them for their unselfish work for the school.

BOWLING

Central's bowling teams, coached by the Rev. A. T. Schmit, proved stiff competition in the leagues in which they participated.

AMERICANS

The Americans led by Captain Clem Shubarga, and including Richard Ray, Irvin Doman, Richard Perz, Richard Naugle, and Lawrence Brannan, rolled in with an eighth place standing.

CENTRALIANS

This new team headed by Andrew Kaminski started late in the season after replacing the Maumee keglers, who dropped out of the league. Frank Sosko, Gene Kozlowski, Frank O'Connor and Dick Reed gave the league leaders a hard battle despite their late start.

NATIONALS

Donald Wilhelm captained the National League team composed of James Streicher, Harold Manion, Raymond Kehn, Richard Zielinski, Jerome Wielinski and Edward Lavey. These boys finished in twelfth place after a hard season.

Girls' Sports

GYM INSTRUCTOR

Mildred Mohr Borgerson

Mildred Mohr Borgerson has been the girls' gym instructor for the past six years. The G. A. L. activities are under her supervision as they function through the gym classes.

Mrs. Borgerson received her A. B. degree at Mary Manse College, Toledo, and her Physical Training Degree at Ohio State University.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC LEAGUE

Twelve years ago the Girls' Athletic League was organized for the purpose of developing leadership, encouraging social as well as athletic activities and the promotion of sportsmanship among the girls.

There were approximately one hundred and thirty-two girls enrolled in this organization during the past year.

For the social program the girls held several play-days; tournaments of newcomb, hit-pin, basketball, and volleyball were played. At the completion of the programs, refreshments were served.

The fifteen girls having merited the highest points for various activities are awarded G. A. L. monograms in May.

Back Row: Louise Kendrick, Margaret Ruppel, Betty Sheriff, Lillian Antesberger, Naomi Langenderfer.

QUEEN OF MAY

GOODBYE

My road branches here,
And I instinctively start—
For both are nice ones,
But they lead apart.
This road I have traveled,
I remember with a sigh.
And taking the new one,
I whisper — "Goodbye."

—Gloria D. Walters.

TO CHRIST THE KING

Dear Christ, My King—
Help me on my way.
I'm leaving school,
And so I want to say—
Thanks for all you have done
To make my life a happy one.
I know that I will miss it all
But thanks for all that Central has done,
Dear Christ, My King.

—Anna Mae Todd '41.

Spring showr's
Fall down,
Like the graces that come from you,
Making fertile ground in our souls
For God's grace.

In a word,
Each year,
May brings our your virtues a new,
Your Son must have made this month
Just for you.

—Edward Donoher '41.

ALMA MATER

My Guardian staunch and true
You've watched o'er me with care
And taught me the virtues of Faith, hope and love—My Alma Mater.

—Ruth McDaniel '41.

GRADUATION

Four years of so-called agony—
Slips, demerits, homework, bells.
All these thoughts come back to me
As I make my last farewells.
The long looked for day now comes,
I should be joyous, but I'm not,
I dread to leave my loyal chums,
Who will never say that I forgot.

—Rose Ann Warrick '41.

LITTLE BLUE LOCKER

Oh! little blue locker.
So tiny and straight.
Your horrid combination,
Often made me late.
But I can't help crying
And I've got a broken heart.
'Cause soon I know,
We will be torn apart.
I threw my books in you
And slammed at the door
But soon I'll be gone
And won't do it anymore.
I'll think of you always
And will often recall,
My little blue locker
On the third floor hall.

— Edna Stark '41.

TO THE SENIORS OF '42 WE BEQUEATH:

Our leadership of the school,
Our educational assemblies,
Our sparkling school paper,
Our successful plays and operettas,
Our clean, hard-fought games of sport,
Our frequent visits to the chapel,
Our loyalty to our parishes,
Our keen interest in all activities,
Our cheerful, guiding teachers,
And last but not least,
Our kind and helpful principal,
Father Harrington.

We hope you'll treasure these bequests, seniors of '42, and keep them always intact. Do your best and perhaps you'll surpass our efforts, who knows. And if the path gets rough and rocky, think of us and breathe a fervent prayer. Accept our challenge and say: "If they could do it so could we."

We wish you the very best of success. May God, through His Blessed Mother, makes your senior year an eventful and successful one.

The Class of '41

Farewell Program

". . . Better men and women have graduated from Central because of their association with Father Kirsch . . ." With these simple words, the Reverend John L. Harrington paid tribute to the Very Reverend Raymond G. Kirsch, who was leaving to assume the duties of the presidency of DeSales College, after having been principal of Central for sixteen years.

On the morning of March 6, our principal, Father Kirsch, celebrated Mass in the presence of student body and faculty. In the afternoon a farewell program was held in his honor in the school auditorium. Melvin Lawicki, senior president, speaking on behalf of the students, expressed the regret that as "a peculiar characteristic of human beings, we wait until the hour of parting before putting into words the feeling of love, appreciation and indebtedness to one who has sacrificed so much for our advancement and welfare."

James Manion and Rose Marie Wilhelm, president and vice-president of the freshman class presented Father Kirsch with a spiritual bouquet and a basket of red roses, a gift of the students. Sister M. Hilda, S. N. D., gave him a spiritual bouquet composed entirely of the prayers of the faculty.

"Father Kirsch is finding new fields to conquer," said the Reverend G. W. E. Dunne, representing Central's faculty. "He has won his golden spurs as our leader. Let us hope that adds to his knightly apparel a brilliant crest and a new coat of arms."

Father Harrington emphasized the spiritual guidance which Father Kirsch has constantly given . . . "Dearest to his heart is the spiritual advancement of his students," he said.

Bidding farewell to the student body and the faculty, Father Kirsch commented, "All positions in life are temporary . . . Anything worth having is done through the grace of God."
